A longer maturation softens its smokiness to hints of charred oak while developing the wood imbued character. Bourbon casks cultivate the sweetness of vanilla pods and honey while sherry casks impart rich fruity notes.

Located on the outskirts of the ancient Royal Borough of Forres lies Benromach - Speyside's smallest working distillery

Built in 1898, the year of the great distillery boom. Alexander Edward of Sanquhar, a well-known promoter of new distilleries, granted a feu charter to the Benromach Distillery Company for a plot of his land, north of the railway line in Forres.

The distillery was closed and dismantled in 1983 along with a number of other distilleries. In 1993 the site was purchased by Gordon & MacPhail and several years later work commenced on re-equipping the distillery.

Benromach was officially re-opened by HRH The Prince of Wales in 1998.

Just two experienced distillers create Benromach using the finest Scottish barley and the purest spring water from the nearby Romach Hills. They personally ensure that only the highest quality spirit is filled into sturdy oak casks before being left to mature at Benromach Distillery for many years.

This whisky has been bottled without chill filtering and as a result, a completely harmless sediment may form in the bottle. What's more, when you add water the whisky may turn a little cloudy. It's nothing to worry about at all. Slainte!

Taste with water

PALATE: Traces of charred oak complementing sweet tangerine, plum and nectarines. with a touch of chocolate.

BODY: Medium

FINISH: Warm smooth and complex.

STYLE: A classic Speyside malt
