

The Dalmore King Alexander 111

Country:	Scotland
Region:	Northern Highlands - Alness
Producer:	Whyte and Mackay
Range:	The Principal Collection
Bottling:	Distillery Bottling
Style:	Single Malt Whisky
Water Source	River Alness which flows from Loch Morie
Owner	Whyte and Mackay
Status	Operational
Age:	no age statement
Cask Type:	Matusalem oloroso, Port pipes, Marsala, Madeira, Cabernet Sauvignon barriques, American white oak ex-bourbon casks
Colour:	Deep Mahogany
Flavour Profile:	Citrus Fruits, Dark Chocolate, Orange and Cinnamon
Allergens:	Not known

Bottle size: 70cl - abv: 43%

This expression of The Dalmore is complex, on the nose essences of redberries and fresh flowers, on taste the rich taste of oranges and chocolate, in the traditional house style of The Dalmore, The finish is long and lingering, sweet not overpowering

The Story of Dalmore

In 1263, Colin of Kintail, Chief of the Clan Mackenzie, took a bold decision to stand up and be counted, and felled a charging stag which attacked King Alexander III of Scotland. In return for saving his life, the grateful King gifted the 12-pointed Royal Stag emblem to the Mackenzie Clan as a reward.

When descendants of the Mackenzie Clan took over the ownership of The Dalmore distillery in 1867, they continued to honour this brave act and proudly put the 12-pointed Royal Stag on the bottle. To this day, the Stag still adorns each and every bottle of The Dalmore.

To celebrate the pioneering and innovative values of the Mackenzie Clan, the Master Distiller has painstakingly created the only single malt in the world to unite a unique six cask finish for one outstanding achievement. Spirits matured in ex-bourbon casks, Matusalem oloroso sherry butts, Madeira barrels, Marsala casks, Port pipes and Cabernet Sauvignon wine barriques are combined in perfect harmony to create a uniquely complex, yet smooth single malt. This is the embodiment of brave creativity and a lifetime's experience.

Taste with Water

NOSE: Red berry fruits, fresh flowers, passion fruit.

PALLETTE: Citrus zest, vanilla pod, creme caramel.

BODY: Medium to full

FINISH: Sweet cinnamon, nutmeg.

STYLE: Rich, Flavoursome. After dinner single malt

