Tasting Note

Winery information:

The Region Stellenbosch, Western Cape

Stellenbosch wine region is located in the Western Cape by the historic town of Stellenbosch. It is one of South Africa's most established wine growing regions and sought after for its mountainous terrain, varied, deep soils and plentiful rainfall.

The region is divided into several sub-regions and Morgenhof is located within Simonsberg-Stellenbosch, which is known for its high quality, ageworthy reds. Here the vineyards are dominated by the Simonsberg Mountain which lies between Stellenbosch and Paarl.

Vineyards

The 78 hectares vineyards at Morgenhof Estate are dry farmed and worked to allow the myriad of different terroirs found on the farm to express themselves in the finished wines. The soil for the Chenin Blanc varies from medium to heavy textured.

The vineyards are at an altitude of 250-300 metres..

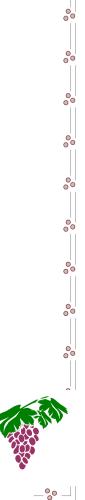

The average age of the vines are 50 years old. The grapes are hand picked the harvest is picked at 40 hl/ha

Vinification:

The grapes are de-steemed and crushed, fermented in Burgundy French Oak Barrels matured for 9 to 10 months, fined (110 micron) and bottled
